| Date | Time | Cleaned | Sanitized | Initials | Inspected |
|------|------|---------|-----------|----------|-----------|
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |
|      |      |         |           |          |           |

The Ice Machine should be completely emptied at least once a month and completely washed, rinsed sanitized and air-dried ensuring not dirt or mold exists. After the ice machine has been inspected it can be turned back on to refilled for use.